

THE LENTEN SERMON

Yesterday Afternoon at the Cathedral by Bishop Kain.

A LARGE CONGREGATION PRESENT.

The Bishop Spoke of Satan's Effort to Allure Christ from His Allegiance to His Heavenly Father—Advice as to Earthly Greatness—The Last of the Lenten Sermons Next Sunday.

To the large congregation gathered in the Cathedral yesterday afternoon, Bishop Kain explained another phase in the Savior's temptation, namely, Satan's effort to allure Christ from His allegiance to His heavenly father and to induce him to transfer to the Tempter the worship due to God alone. The price offered by Satan for this base apostasy was the promise of universal dominion over all the Kingdoms of this world.

"Many men," said the Bishop, "in making practical application of this seductive offer of Satan, are subjected to a kindred temptation under the form of ambition, or an inordinate craving for the honors and preferments of this world. Too often the ambitious do not scruple to employ, in the prosecution of their aims, means that are manifestly unlawful. If such means possess any virtue to aid men in attaining their ends—any element of success—where do they secure it? Must it not be from the Evil One? Is not then the use of forbidden means to gain worldly promotion a worship of Satan? What else is every tampering with conscience, every departure from truth, every sacrifice of principle, of which the ambitious are guilty but a falling down before and a worshipping of the unclean spirit?"

"But can a similar indictment be alleged against the strictly conscientious Christian, who would spurn every unjust or sinful, or even questionable means of securing the object of his ambition? We must not be too quick in giving to this question a negative response. If, in the use of such means only as are admittedly licit in themselves, a man ignores God's directing providence and puts his trust and assurance of success in his own unaided and unsatisfied exertions, is this not a species of self-worship? And what is self-worship but the most refined worship of Satan? The sin in that case does not attach to the means employed, but to the unchristian manner in which they are employed; for the devil is sure to corrupt and direct the mind and heart from which God has been banished."

The bishop then called attention to another form in which this insidious temptation to ambition not infrequently presents itself, and which he not inaptly qualified as building-castles-in-the-air. "What strange dream of fancied greatness and glory do not some men indulge in, who have no expectation whatever of seeing these entrancing visions realized! Could they realize them, would they stop at any means within their reach? Would not the prince of this world find them disposed to accept his proposals on any terms? Are they not already secret worshippers at his shrine?"

The bishop bade his hearers not to envy those who have reached the pinnacle of earthly greatness, since the wreath with which the world encircles their brow is too often earned at the cost of the blessed crown of immortality. "Happy are those who live content in the lot where God's providence has placed. They best understand and practice that first of all the divine commandments: 'The Lord thy God shalt thou worship, and him only shalt thou serve.'"

Next Sunday afternoon, the bishop will preach the last of these interesting and instructive Lenten sermons.

ACROSS THE RIVER.

Republicans and Democrats Select Candidates for the Spring Elections.

The Martin's Ferry Republicans nominated the following ticket on Saturday:

Water works trustee, Stephen Hipkins; cemetery trustee, Joseph Davidson; councilmen, Nathan Nale for first ward; Adam Waring, Second; Charles James, William Davis, Third ward; board of education, James Runyon and Lewis Smith, First ward; George Baird, Third ward; assessors, John Fisher, First ward; Levi Bailey, Second ward; Isaac Moore, Third ward.

This is a good ticket. Four of the candidates are iron workers in the Laughlin, Standard and Etna mills. Over 400 votes were polled at the Peace township Republican convention held at Bridgeport on Saturday. The following ticket was nominated: trustee, Matthew Jones; treasurer, Fred Fox; constable, Thomas Thompson; supervisor, Albert Young.

The Peace township Democrats met at Martin's Ferry on Saturday and nominated the following ticket: trustee, Richard O'Beirne; treasurer, George Medill; assessor, J. A. Darrah; constable, Lin Donnelly.

The convention lasted only a short time. The others will be nominated at Bridgeport to-morrow afternoon.

At the convention of the Martin's Ferry Democrats, held at Keesey's hall on Saturday night, a ticket was nominated as follows: Cemetery trustee, John Walters; council, Richard Stewart, First ward; John Solby, Second; Louis Rothermund, Third; assessors, Thomas O'Donnell, First; L. White, White, Second; Levi Jones, Third; board of education, Will Dixon and George McGlumphy, First; George Vennum, Third. Other nominations to be made by the committee.

Municipal Conventions.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

CALDWELL, O., March 19.—The Republicans of this place held a convention last night and placed in nomination the following ticket: For mayor, L. B. Phillips; councilmen, W. H. Cooley, P. H. Barry and James F. Rannella; assessor, C. W. Spiker. At the same hour the Democrats held a convention and nominated this ticket: For mayor, A. O. McKee; councilmen, W. H. Cooley, P. H. Barry and David Young; assessor, Peter Fogle. The councilmen in both of the above named tickets are composed of Republicans and Democrats, and were so composed at the request of the people in general on account of the manufacturing enterprises to be established here in the near future.

BELLALIRE.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

Samuel B. Pipes, President of the county board of election supervisors, was here Saturday in conference with R. C. Meyer, another member, as to printing the tickets for members of Boards of Education. The supervisors have decided to have nothing to do with the election of school directors and to allow that election to go the same as last year. Some of the judges and clerks declare they will not conduct that election unless provision is made to pay them for the extra work. One of the supervisors says they must be paid out of the school funds, but whether they are or not it is dangerous to refuse to serve under the Kangaroo law. It costs $50 fine and imprisonment.

Mord Nelson, the well known C. & P. yard engineer, had a narrow escape from being killed in the yard Saturday evening, and as it is he will be laid up for some time. He was standing on the step just outside the engine cab as it moved up the yard when he side-wiped a freight car and was knocked off. His head was badly hurt and his body bruised, but he was exceedingly fortunate that he did not fall beneath the wheels, and only his presence of mind kept his feet from under them.

The prohibitionists failed to materialize in sufficient numbers to make a ticket Saturday night. John A. Gallagher, at whose law office the meeting was to be held, waited an hour and then went home. Later a few devout ones came along, but as their meeting place was closed they also went home. It is probable they will put up candidates for some of the offices yet, but there will be only a few to hold a convention.

William Porterfield, a B. & O. engineer, and a well known old soldier, was buried here yesterday afternoon under the auspices of Spangler Post, G. A. R. Mr. Porterfield was in the sixtieth year of his age and leaves a wife and several children. A special train from Wheeling came down with people to attend the funeral.

The report that the Howley-Crozier prize fight will take place here under police protection is regarded as a canard. It is the sheriff of this county who will be held responsible, even though some of the police here might offer protection. They have no authority and can afford no protection.

The Republican city committee have filled the vacancies in the school board nominations by placing Squire Frank S. Mason on for the long term and J. L. Lancaster for the short term. The tickets are now all complete and will be certified to the deputy supervisors of election to-day.

The Amos Worley farm, just west of town, containing 164 acres, was bought recently by John W. Fowkes for $2,500. This is a remarkably low price. The farm, with twenty-eight acres additional, cost Mr. Worley $6,000 in 1857.

NOT CONSUMPTION.

The Symptoms in Miss Wheeler's Case Had Been Misunderstood and She Had Been Long Improperly Treated.

After Twenty-two Years of Suffering from Catarrhal Drain, Headache, Dizziness, Palpitation, Cough, Chest Pains, Dyspepsia, is Entirely Restored by Drs. Copeland, Bell and Davis.

Miss Ella Wheeler, No. 198 Seventeenth street, a "Philadelphia" dressmaker, furnished the following remarkable statement for publication in endorsement of Drs. Copeland, Bell & Davis's method of treatment:

"My trouble began twenty-two years ago," says Miss Wheeler, "with cough, cold, sneezing and feverish spells. I have taken a thorough treatment from fifteen of our city physicians and have swallowed a barrel of cod liver oil in the rounds of them all without benefit."

"Some of the doctors told me my trouble was hereditary and I would never get well of it, while others told me I might grow out of it, but everything I took did me no good. One doctor told me I had consumption and would never get well."

"Finally I read in one of the papers of a lady who had precisely the same symptoms as I had and I felt if she could get cured I could also. So I made up my mind to go and consult Drs. Copeland, Bell and Davis and the first visit I made to their office I was so near dead and so very weak I had to stop at different places on my way to rest. At that time placed myself under their care. At that time my nose would stop up."

MISS ELLA WHEELER, 198 SEVENTEENTH STREET.

and mucus continually dropping into my throat, causing me to cough. I had headaches, pain over my eyes, coughed almost night and day, raising a thick, tenacious mucus streaked with blood. My throat was so sore I could scarcely swallow. I was so short of breath when I would go upstairs I would have to sit down on the top step to rest. Pains all through my chest into my back so bad I would have to be propped up with pillows in the bed to keep from smothering to death—pains just like a knife running through my chest. Appetite lost, what little I did eat craved and burst in my stomach and caused so much misery I was almost afraid to eat. Almost anything I ate I would throw up. It would not lay on my stomach."

"I also had pains through my back and kidneys, so severe at times I could not lie in bed. Two years ago night sweats set in, and every stitch of clothing about me was just as wet as though they had been dipped in the river. I had chills every day, followed by burning fever and aching all over. My feet would swell so tight I could not wear my shoes. I had palpitation of the heart, and grew so weak and thin I was nothing but skin and bones. I was a mere skeleton. People would come in and tell my sister I would not live a week and I often prayed that I might die to get out of my misery. I also had dizziness in my head so bad I would often faint."

"I now weigh ten pounds more than I ever did in my life, am stout and hearty, can go to bed and sleep all night without waking, can eat anything at all, and it does not hurt my stomach, the pains are all gone, breath free and easy, can walk without the least fatigue or shortness of breath, have no night sweats or swelling of feet. If any person doubts this statement please call at my home, No. 198 Seventeenth street, and I shall gladly verify it. In fact, the place is not told here."

"I must say I owe my recovery to Drs. Copeland, Bell and Davis, and cannot say enough in this short space in praise of their splendid work."
